

Introduce yourself. What is your name and role?

Tell me a story about your homeland.

Tell me your favourite memory.

Tell me a story you want to share with the audience that will help them understand your situation?

How did you get to Australia?

What are you doing now?

What do you want to be doing in 10 years? Why?

Who / what has inspired you?

What will you do to get there?

What do you need to make this happen?

What gets in your way?

What are the benefits of overcoming these obstacles?

What do you like the best?

What don't you like? How will you change this?

What was the worst, rude behaviour you have experienced?

How do you feel when this happens?

What advise would you give to someone else?

Why will I listen to you?

What support could someone give if they haven't had your experience and they wanted to help?

What message do you want to share with the audience?

Is there anything else you want to add?
